

Michael Larson Steps Down
as Board Member of Grupo Televisa

MEXICO CITY, December 26, 2014 - Grupo Televisa, S.A.B. ("Televisa"; NYSE:TV; BMV:TLEVISA CPO) announced today that after six years of service Michael Larson has resigned from the Board of Directors of Televisa. Larson plans to reallocate his time to other investments.

"Televisa appreciates Michael's thoughtfulness and respects his decision to do what he believes is best for both himself and our company. We regretfully accept his resignation but are most grateful for his dedication as a Board member during the past six years. His insights and experience have been vital through a critical stage of transformation and diversification of Televisa", said Emilio Azcárraga, Televisa's President and CEO.

"Larson's decision to resign has no correlation with future investment plans related to Televisa," commented a spokesperson for Larson.

About Grupo Televisa

Televisa is the largest media company in the Spanish-speaking world based on its market capitalization and a major participant in the international entertainment business. It operates four broadcast channels in Mexico City, produces and distributes 24 pay-TV brands for distribution in Mexico and the rest of the world, and exports its programs and formats to the U.S. through Univision Communications Inc. ("Univision") and to other television networks in over 50 countries. Televisa is also an active participant in Mexico's telecommunications industry. It has a majority interest in Sky, a leading direct-to-home satellite television system operating in Mexico, the Dominican Republic and Central America and in five cable and telecommunications businesses: Cablevisión, Cablemás, Cablecom, TVI and Bestel. Through its cable companies, Televisa offers video, voice, and broadband services. Televisa also has interests in magazine publishing and distribution, radio production and broadcasting, professional sports and live entertainment, feature-film production and distribution, the operation of a horizontal Internet portal, and gaming. In addition, Televisa has a 50% equity stake in GSF Telecom Holdings, S.A.P.I. de C.V. ("GSF"), the controlling company of Grupo Iusacell, S.A. de C.V. ("Iusacell"), Mexico's third largest mobile telecom provider in terms of subscribers. In the United States, Televisa has equity and debentures that, upon conversion and subject to any necessary approval from the Federal Communications Commission ("FCC") in the United States, would represent approximately 38% on a fully diluted, as-converted basis of the equity capital in Broadcasting Media Partners, Inc. ("BMP"), the controlling company of Univision, the leading media company serving the United States Hispanic market.
